Miniature Show

- Fall brings the Annual Miniature Show opening November 3rd 2023. We are going to have several 3-D entries also. This proves to be an exciting show. Barbara Harden will bring in her Autumn decorations to sell to add to the festivities and color. We will also have some special Christmas Ornaments on sale by Sharon Taylor. Great ideas for that special someone's gift.

- Are your paintings ready for the change of the Tri- State Gallery Show? Start planning now for the change of paintings in November at the Tri-State Hospital hallway show. More to come on that as the committee prepares for the changes. The art work must be 2-D to hang on the wall so nothing will interfere with the use of it. You will be notified when to have your entry in via email.

The December show will be all about photography, wood, beads, and bejeweled manakins. Lots of wonderful ideas for gifts and decorations. We have some special photographers this year that will add some wild excitement to this show including Ken Bonner, Mo Weber, Lynn Guilott, Alyssa Hopkins and Marlene Mignerey. A show you won't want to miss.

- We are planning to have a float in the parade again this year, but we are low on workers since our leader broke her wrist and will not be able to do a lot of the preparation. If there is anyone out there who would like to step up and volunteer to help put it together, we could sure use some help. A lot of us are over the age of being physical help. We could sure use some younger workers, float riders, and candy-hand-outers or we will have to forgo this year. If this sounds like something you would like to join in on, please let us know.

- January 2024 brings the Black and White Show. There are some beautiful things on the horizon for this show. It will feature Jen Whitted, Charlotte Wood, Pat Schaufele, Jodee Maioroni, Mary Lou Wayne, and Marlys Seubert.

- Time to pick up your 10 canvases for the Heart 4 Art show in February 2024. If you can't do them all you can share with a friend, but make sure you are both registered. You can pick them up at the Valley Art Center now along with the entry form. Then bring them in for hanging on January 30th to enter them in the show. The opening will be on Friday 2, 4pm -7pm.
- We welcome members at the Board of Director meetings: The next meeting is October 30, 2023 at 10am. Please use the back door to enter.
